Please take your time to describe the problems you are currently facing, along with your personal goals, for the life areas listed below. You may have goals for only one or two of the life areas or you may find that you have goals for them all. When finished, turn this sheet in to your therapist; he/she will use the information you provided to develop a framework for your individualized treatment plan.

Problem Area 1: Mental Health & Substance Use

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Goals for Mental Health & Substance Use

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

What have you tried in the past to fix your problems related to mental health and/or substance use? What has been the most helpful?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Problem Area 2: Family & Relationships

Goals for Family & Relationships

What have you tried in the past to fix your problems related to family and relationships? What has been the most helpful?

MindReMakeProject 2020
Problem Area 3: Physical Health

Goals for Physical Health

What have you tried in the past to fix your problems related to physical health? What has been the most helpful?
Problem Area 4: Income, Employment, and/or Housing

What have you tried in the past to fix your problems related to income, employment, and/or housing? What has been the most helpful?

Goals for Income, Employment, and/or Housing
What have you tried in the past to fix your problems related to legal issues? What has been the most helpful?

---

Problem Area 5: Legal Issues (Probation or Parole)

---

Goals for Legal Issues

---
Problem Area 6: ______________________________

Goals for ______________________________

What have you tried in the past to fix your problems related to ______________________________? What has been the most helpful?